How did you hear about Chat Now service?

By submitting your details via this form you consent to them being used by our Chat Now (CN) Admin Team as necessary to process your application. You also consent to them being processed and stored by our Chat Now Sub Committee Members for the length of your CN service and 2 years following your service. These details are all required to enable CN to fulfil our legal obligation and exercise our duty of care regarding safeguarding to both you and the members of the public we engage with via CN. All personal details will be stored securely and safely by the CN Sub Committee members in line with AA's GSB Data Protection Policy and GDPR law. You are responsible for updating the CN Sub Committee members if your personal details change during the storage period stated above. As per GDPR you do have the right to object to the storing and processing of your information in certain circumstances. If you do object, please include the reasons for your objection with your application and we will consider them and write back to you within 28 days.

Please e-mail completed application form to chatadmin@aamail.org
